BENZ BENDER BOOTS

The recent Johnny Chester night was a great success and, apart from Johnny Chester the crowd was honored to hear the latest poem by Boots McLeod. Under protest it is printed.....

THE TWO COWARDLY LIONS...ANDY AND IAN

They write behind your back
Discretion they do lack,
Poor boots, they always pick,
It's enough to make you sick.

The law should soon be changed
To stop them using names,
Just take a look at their red faces,
And you'll find "No human traces".

They tell us all the news,
And hope that no one sues.
The dobbers name is Scoble,
I do not think he is noble!

Jim tells them all the lies,
Baby innocence in his eyes.
One day he'll come undone,
Cause Boots is gonna have some fun!

Ian teaches your son and my daughter,
He's just a frustrated reporter.
The kids they clown, he shouts "O, Lord!"
While hitting his head on hard blackboard.

Ian takes the kids on camp,
To carry his gear as they tramp,
He gives advice to walk downhills.
"Walk like Boots, you'll have no spills".

His tent and food - it weighs a ton,
The kids don't think they're having fun.
When camp they reach...oh what a fright!
They're stuck with Ian-all day, all night.

Andy, don't do as you're told,
The "Triangle News" is never sold.
A gentleman you could even be
If you didn't share Ian's company.

I hope I haven't got you bored,
But the pen is mightier than the sword,
Now good Lions, don't despair!
Every club has such a pair.

CRICKET

M'ville journeyed to Eildon last Sunday for the first day of the match against that club. Cap. Dennis Brown won the toss and elected to bat. Marysville's batting once again crumbled early and a repeat performance of the first match appeared imminent.
With the score at 5-20 new player Rober Tucker (Ass. Manager-Cumberland House) joined Peter Halliday. These two players lifted the score when Tucker was out to a splendid catch close to the wicket. "Rats" then joined Halliday and in his usual cavalier style quickly added much needed runs. Ratcliffe was bowled with the score at 75.
Unfortunately two disastrous run outs brought Marysville's innings to an abrupt end.
Peter Halliday played an excellent hand and carried his bat for 35 N.O. (he RUN OUT of partners).
Eildon commenced their innings at a furious rate and after facing only eight overs before stumps had scored 1-48.
John Ratcliffe was the successful bowler thanks to a brilliant leg side catch by 'keeper Ian Walshe.
Scores Marysville 90 (Halliday 35N.O. Walshe 15, Tucker 15, Ratcliffe 13, Cash 4.)
Eildon 1-48.
Marysville Bowling...Ratcliffe 1-13
A reminder to players the team for this game is... Brown, Beveridge, Walshe Mainey, Halliday, Ridgway, Jones, Giddins, Cash, Tucker, Ratcliffe.
