NEWSLETTER.

OCTOBER, 1965.

The Society meets at the State School, Charman Road, Cheltenham on the 3rd. Thursday of each month. Next meeting Thursday November 18th.

VICTORIAN HISTORICAL CONFERENCE.

On October 1st. - 3rd. the Royal Historical Society of Victoria held its first Victorian Historical Conference. The theme was "Local and Regional History." Between 150 and 200 people were present; most of the sixty-three organizations affiliated with the Royal Historical Society sent representatives. Mrs. N. Blackman and Mrs. P. Brodie from our Society attended on Saturday October 1st. and found the six speakers and several discussions most interesting. Our Society would like to congratulate the R.H.S. on this venture and hopes the conference will become an annual event.

A NEW MAYOR FOR MOORABBIN.

Congratulations from the Society to Cr. Harold Stevens on his election as Mayor of the City. Cr. Stevens has been one of the representatives of the North Ward for some years. We understand that he is an enthusiastic sportsman; he will, therefore, be interested in the history of local sport, and from that, we hope it will be but a short step to being interested in the history of the city whose first citizen he now is.

THE THREE McQUEENS - concluded

His son Finlay, the eldest of four boys, grew up and decided to be a farmer. With his father's help he bought some 500 acres of land at "The Tyers" in the Traralgon district. But when Malcolm's financial
