Miss R. Wilson,

M I T C H A M.

Dear Madam,

It has pleased us greatly to receive from Mr. J. A. Harker, of Enfield Wash, England, a request to forward as a gift to you, a ladies' gold watch, and a pair of brass statuettes.

A very nice watch has been selected, but we are faced with a little difficulty with regard to the statuettes, because it is added that horses as the subject, would be preferred. The article which Mr. Harker has in mind is quite well known to us, but unfortunately during the past two years, when importations from Europe have been prohibitive on account of the increased customs tariff, and the high rate of duty, it has become practically impossible to procure figures of this type in Australia.

Whilst it is a rather unusual step to take, we feel that we would really be rendering the best service to Mr. Harker, if we sought your own guidance or preference in making a choice of figures. If you could possibly visit the Chinaware Department, Mr. Shoppee, the Manager, will gladly show you all the articles which we ourselves feel to be suitable.

Meanwhile, the watch is held aside here, in case you have any particular wish as to how it should be sent to you.

Yours faithfully,
THE MYER EMPORIUM LTD.

J. A. Harker, Esq., 36, Beaconsfield Road,
Enfield Wash,
Middlesex,
E N G L A N D.

Dear Sir,

We thank you for your letter of the 8th July, and for your remittance of £7. You will be pleased to know that the rate of exchange enabled us to increase the amount available for your gifts to £8/15/-.

The articles were handed to Miss Wilson on Monday last, and this lady expressed herself as frankly delighted with them.

A slight variation of your instructions had, unavoidably, to be made, but we assure you that this need cause you no disappointment. Owing to the unfavourable conditions of the past two years, it has been very difficult to import certain goods, and among these are bronze statuettes as you describe in your letter. There is not, we believe, a pair available in Australia, and if they could be procured, the price, would be out of all proportion to the real value, on account of the addition of the heavy customs duty and the adverse rate of exchange.

Therefore, we took the unusual step, (but the only alternative, in the circumstances, since reference to you would have resulted in great delay) of inviting Miss Wilson's own preference in this matter. A number of suitable figures, among them horses, were arranged in the department, and these were explained to the lady, by the manager personally, in such a way that prices were neither seen nor discussed.

Finally Miss Wilson chose a piece of Dutch pottery of unusual design. It is in the nature of an epergne, with the figures of a girl in Dutch national costume and two oxen, given in such heavy relief that the piece is virtually a group of statuary with a vase "attached". The details are as sharp as any sculptured or cast piece, and this particular pottery has a peculiar metallic finish which gives an unusually rich and "solid" appearance. As we have said, Miss Wilson appeared to be delighted with it.

A very nice watch was also selected and we may add that the total cost of these two articles was slightly in excess of the full amount of your remittance, but we appreciate so much your confidence in asking us to help you from so great a distance, that we have been only too pleased to disregard this small balance.

A receipted invoice was posted to you on Monday last. It was our intention really that it should accompany this letter. You will notice that the second item is shown as a pair of statuettes. This is an error, due to the details having been copied from your letter, by a clerk who was not aware of the substitution we have described above.

With renewed thanks for this opportunity to be of service to Miss Wilson and yourself,

We are,

Yours very truly,

THE MYER EMPORIUM LTD.

Dear Madam,

We have much pleasure in advising that at the request of Mrs. J. A. Harker of Middlesex, England, some handkerchiefs went forward by carrier yesterday, and a parcel will also be despatched today.

May we say how very sorry we are that we were unable to send these two parcels together, but as we had to procure the painting outfit ordered, we were not quite sure how long this would take us.

Assuring you of our very best attention at all times,

We are,

Yours faithfully,

Dear Madam,

We thank you for your letter, and in accordance with your wishes we have sent to Miss R. Wilson of Mitcham half a dozen handkerchiefs and one pen-painting outfit.

May we, however, explain that we had not a pen-painting outfit in stock priced at about 25/-, and, therefore, we have supplied one @ 16/6d and trust that in so doing we have your entire approval.

May we add that there is an amount of 16/1½d owing to you, and we have placed this to your credit until we receive your further instructions.

Thanking you for this opportunity to be of service, and we look forward with interest to your further letter,

Yours faithfully,
