

Bamford Bros. Timber Merchants, Box Hill & Ringwood

Extracts from Wages Book – September 1909 to December 1910.

Introduction

The Bamford Bros. were my Grandfather Philip Bamford and his brother Walter.

The business in Ringwood was located at what is now the corner of the Maroondah Highway and Warrandyte Road.

The pages following this introduction are copied from the Ringwood wages book, beginning with 10 September 1909. Not all pages are copied, but what is attached is a selection of pages which indicate the changes that occurred during that period.

The material is provided for historical purposes, particularly relating to the Ringwood area.

Copyright.

All material contained in this file is copyright. Without prior approval of the Copyright holder, none of this material or any derivative of it is to be used for any commercial purpose, or with the intention of monetary gain, or for any purpose which may result in distribution of multiple copies of material in electronic or printed form.

The information may be freely used for personal research, historical or genealogy purposes. Where any of the material or information is used publicly, the source is to be attributed to John O W Bamford.

The introduction above, and this copyright notice, should accompany any copies of either part or all of the material.