Mr. W. J. Stoney,
386 Riversdale Road,
SURREY HILLS.

Dear Mr. Stoney,

Alexanders the tenants of the two front shops at Midway have asked me to approach you as to whether they could rent your upstairs surgery for a short period. They have a sale commencing on the 2nd August until about the 12th August and they are very short of space for stock during this period and ten days prior.

I told them that I did not think they had much hope as you had already started to put in partitions and I would be glad to know if by any chance the room would be available.

Yours faithfully,

C. E. CARTER & SON.

Dear Sir,

I am sorry to have to worry you again about your old sign in Midway, but the position is getting quite urgent and I would be much obliged if you could have it taken away within the next week or so as the radio shop wants to have their new sign put up.

Yours faithfully,

C. E. CARTER & SON.

Dear Mr. Stoney,

I notice there is a light on in your office in Midway. I do not know whether this is intentional, but it seems to have been on for some days and I thought I should draw your attention to it. I would also be glad if you could let us have your cheque for the current months rent from the 16th October to the 16th November.

Yours faithfully,
