LAND TAX ACT 1928.

Land Tax Act 1928, Section 52.

CHANGE OF OWNERSHIP OF LAND.

Notice of Change of Ownership.

1. One form should be used for each transaction, but sales of various blocks to the same purchaser may be notified on the same Schedule.
2. The responsibility of lodging the notice rests entirely with the vendor, who must obtain the purchaser's signature to the acknowledgment of ownership.
3. It is obligatory for a purchaser who has entered into possession to complete his portion of the notice, whether the transfer be completed or not. Failure to do so renders him liable to a fine of £50. A purchaser on terms is an "owner" within the meaning of the Act.
4. Signatures may be witnessed by any person.
5. Sales or Transfers should be notified on this form within one month of the transaction.
6. Land Tax for any year is based on lands in a taxpayer's possession at noon on 31st December of the previous year; i.e., tax for 1929 is assessed on ownership as at 31st December, 1928.
7. This notice operates to relieve the vendor of the tax for the year following that in which possession has been delivered to the purchaser. Thus, where possession was given on or before 31st December, 1928, the land is removed from the vendor's assessment for 1929. On the other hand, if possession is given on or after 1st January, 1929, the vendor is not relieved of the tax until the 1930 assessment.
8. In the absence of the notification in this form, the vendor still remains liable for the tax on the land disposed of, notwithstanding that he has parted with his interest therein.
9. All information required should be carefully inserted, and full particulars of the land alienated should be quoted from the Titles or Contracts of Sale.
10. If the vendor has not previously paid tax on the land sold, he should attach a memo, setting out the full name and address of the person from whom he acquired the land and the date he obtained possession.
11. Attention to these details will assist the office in arriving at a correct assessment, and will avoid unnecessary correspondence.

NOTE.—This Notice should be lodged within one month of date of transaction.
