

flagstaffhill

Transfer of Ownership

Transfer of ownership from:

Flagstaff Hill Maritime Museum and Village
89 Merri Street, Warrnambool, VIC 3280
Phone: (03) 5559 4600
Email: flagstaffhill@warrnambool.vic.gov.au

Transfer of ownership to:

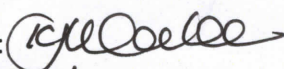

Stawell Historical Society
46 Longfield Street, Stawell, VIC 3380
Phone: (03) 5358 3789
Email: stawhist@bigpond.com

Flagstaff Hill Maritime Museum and Village accepts the unconditional transfer of the objects listed below. Flagstaff Hill Maritime Museum and Village acknowledges in accordance with your express intention that the Stawell Historical Society now has full title to and responsibility of the following objects.

List of objects:

- See detailed list of items enclosed.

*Kate Wake
per* Flagstaff Hill Maritime Museum and Village Representative:
Justin Croft
Collections Curator

Signature:
Date: 23/8/23

Stawell Historical Society Representative:
David Francis

Signature:
Date: 23/8/23

David Francis of Stawell

David Francis
0429 989 693

Kerry met David on a walking tour from the Library, guided by Janet McDonald. 16-3-2023.

Has a stall at the Market Place in Liebig Street (ex DeGrandis shop)

Is a carpenter

Has his father's carpentry and cabinetmaker's tools

Member of Stawell Historical Society – Dorothy Brumby, Chairperson

Member of Warrnambool and District Historical Society

Has a strong interest in local history

Is willing to collect G Pett tools and deliver to the Stawell Historical Society

Will be moving to Warrnambool in the near future

23.8.2023 David Francis collected all items,
both registered and non-collections items,
approx. 1pm; for delivery to Stawell
Historical Society.

Mary A. Peterson.