

Correspondence -

From the Secretary, suggesting sundry alterations in Constitution Statutes &c and giving information upon other important matters connected with the School. Also offering to draft an amending Constitution.

The Secretary's offer was accepted with thanks -

From Joseph Hude, explaining that his offer to teach a Metallurgical Class embraced an offer to teach inorganic chemistry generally

From Mr. Witte M.A. announcing his intention to support a Parliamentary Grant in aid of the School

Resolved. That if Mr. Archie had not already been requested to assist in obtaining a Government Grant of money that the Secretary take the necessary steps to obtain his support

Draft Statutes

The sub-committee brought up their report which consisted of a draft of the Statutes which they recommended which were adopted -

Printing Statutes

The Secretary offered to arrange the Statutes and draft the amending Constitution and generally superintend them through the press

Mr. Fisher Moved

Mr. Cavelli Seconded

That the kind offer of Mr. Baxter be accepted with thanks

Carried

Resolved that Mr. Baxter get 50 Copies of Constitution Statutes & Examination Regulations printed for the use of the Council at a meeting to be held on the 7th of December - That he make the best arrangements he can with the printers both as to price and for keeping the types standing so as to have them printed, after adoption, in pamphlet form in connection with Sir Redmond Barry's Inaugural Address.

^{ad.}
The Council then adjourned until the meeting of the General Council on the 7th proximo