It was resolved:

That Mr Altman's request re Exhibiting his Dies at the Melbourne International Exhibition of 1880 be complied with.

That Mr Newbery be earnestly solicited to reconsider his resignation with a view of withdrawing it, as this Council would feel the secession of Mr Newbery from the School's Administrative Council as a serious misfortune.

That the Accounts amounting to £42. 18. 7 be passed for payment

Registrar reported:

That the Lecturers (excepting Messrs. W. H. Shaw and J. H. Thompson) had met and conferred on matters of interest to the School and had requested the writer to report as under:

That it being advisable a Board should be re-established, the Admin. Council be asked to
