It was reported that 46 persons had visited and inspected The School and 11 new Students joined the Classes since last meeting.

The Vice-President having examined the Accounts presented for payment, observed that Mr. Barnard's name did not appear on the Salaries & Wages Sheet, altho' at the last meeting it was decided to remunerate that gentleman for his services as Registrar at the usual rate up to the 31st October ultimo.

It was resolved that a cheque for the Amount due to the above-mentioned date be drawn in favor of and handed to Mr. Barnard.
Valuable Collection of Shells. - It was reported that Professor Krause had visited Melbourne for the purpose of inspecting and reporting on a collection for disposal by M. Eugene von Guerard of E. Melbourne. - The collection had been offered to The School through the courtesy of His Worship the Mayor for the sum of £30; and as the Professor had reported favorably It was resolved that the same be purchased forthwith at the price named.

The Accounts with these additions including a sum of £2 voted to Mr. Day for conducting the Botany Class in the absence of a
