

alterations be made in the existing rules for management of the room and after consideration were dealt with as follows -

no. 1. That the evening hours be altered from 7 p.m. to 6.30 p.m. until 9 p.m. as before

J. D. Maitland, Agreed to J. Louie

no. 2. That rule 3 read as follows -

(1) Any student damaging or disfiguring any property belonging to the room shall be liable to a fine the extent of which shall be decided by the Committee. If any student misbehaving himself upon being previously warned by 2 members of the committee shall be called before the committee and dealt with as that body shall decide. Adopted

3) That rule no. 5 become no. 6 and that a new rule "that introducing liquors shall at any time - be brought into the room without the sanction of the committee be added to rule 5. Not agreed to -

4. That no papers, periodicals or other common room property be taken from the room - Adopted

5. That rule no. 6, should read as no. 7 and as follows - The governing body of this room shall consist of five members who shall have complete control as regards 3 & 4. and that these members - be students elected by the students annually - Any vacancy shall be filled as required. Not agreed to The old rule to stand

H. A. Hewitt, That the rules as revised be adopted
M. Lindsay } was agreed to

An application was made by the committee of the common room for certain fittings. On the motion of V. T. Hou R. P. Vale seconded by M. Lindsay the matter was left in the hands of the President and Cr S. E. Figgis to deal with. The President suggested that the City Council be asked to provide Sugg Lamps to be erected in front of the School. On the motion of Cr Dunn, see by Cr Louie the suggestion was adopted

A letter was received from Students Melville Gray & Fredk Marriott requesting an annual subscription of £10 towards carrying on the magazine issued by students. On the motion of Cr Middleton, see by Cr Lindsay the matter was referred to the Professorial Board for report.

Andrew Anderson
31 May 1901.