Business

To consider plans and proposals for new Buildings

The President explained the object of the meeting and the cause of the shortness of notice in calling the Council together viz. that Messrs Clark & Smyth who were on Ballarat that day and had early that afternoon intimated to him their desire to meet the Council that evening

Mr Clegg explained the plans submitted by him and after discussion it was

Middleton / Fitches } resolved – That a committee consisting of Prof Smith, Mr Clegg & Mr H.A. Smith confer with Messrs Clark & Smyth in reference to the Building Requirements of the School and that a deputation wait on the government with a request to provide another £5000 - to be placed on next year's estimates –
