In connexion with the proposal to give instruction in the Technical branches of the Woollen Industry, Mr Vickery reported that he had visited the mills in Ballarat and Geelong and the Federal Mills & had also interviewed Mr G. King the Principal of the Geelong & Gordon Technical College, as the result of a discussion that followed it was considered that it would be difficult to give instruction in this work in Ballarat owing to the impossibility of obtaining
