19.3.30

At the opening of the meeting reference was made by the Vice-President - Mr. Barrow to the absence and illness of the President - Mr. Middleton.

A satisfactory report had that day been received that Mr. Middleton's health had been progressing steadily towards recovery and he was pleased to announce that Mr. Middleton's condition was now such that we could look forward to a speedy recovery and return to the field of his many activities.

It was resolved that a letter conveying the Council's sympathies be forwarded to the President.
