Council

As the new term had only just commenced most of the classes were not in full swing.

In the fashion drawing classes it was stated that lay figures on which to display dresses etc. were very necessary and would be a great advantage to this class.

The oxy-welding class are short of emery wheels for grinding tools and in consequence students on occasions have to wait for their turn to put their tools in order. A generator for the acetylene gas is also required for this class.

Owing to the school holidays it was not possible to visit other classes, but we were very much impressed with the class of work and keenness of students.

The following Martha Pinkerton Studentships for 3rd term, 1935 were approved.
