Annual Report The Annual Report was taken as read and received. (Mrs Maxwell & Heathcote)
The President moved the adoption of the Annual Report and referred to the excellent year the school had experienced. He read through the list of attendances at meetings throughout the year and then dealt briefly with the various items in the Report. He ~~also~~ drew particular attention to the generosity of Mr. Macpherson who had mentioned that advice had just been received that Mr. Macpherson had renewed his Scholarship for a further three years at £100 per annum.
