Reports. The Principal's Report was read, received and adopted. Received: Crs Lynch & Barrow. Adopted: Beartland & Farr. C. J. A. L. Farr in reporting for the Visiting Committee said that in company with Mr. Nicholson an inspection of the school was made on the previous Monday afternoon. Owing to examinations being in progress they were unable to see many classes at work. In the Carpentry Shop Junior Technical students were wrestling with tinus & trigonis and it was suggested that it would be helpful if an easier timber to work could be provided. In the Machine Shop, junior classes were
