and better arranged so that cleaning would be facilitated. The floors were to be repaired by the Public Works Department and when they were done the dust would be reduced considerably. Mr. Farr said that the University Inspector's report was a damning one and in his opinion was justified.

When Sir John Harris was here about two years ago he inspected the Chemistry Laboratory and the Council was most humiliated by the disgusting condition it presented. In his opinion the responsibility was the Principal's and Dr. Pound was responsible to the Principal. The grounds and school generally presented a dirty and untidy appearance.

It was resolved that the Principal be asked to go into the matter of improving the state of the Chemistry Laboratory and to report to the Finance Committee who would make a recommendation to the Council.

New Workshop Unit.

The Principal reported that Mr. J. Gray, Inspector of Technical Schools in charge of Defence Training had spent the afternoon at the school going into the matter of the new workshop unit to be provided by the Commonwealth Government. Mr. Gray had offered several valuable suggestions which would be incorporated in the plan to be placed before Mr. P. Barrett when he makes his visit of inspection.
