under review with those of the previous year. He said that the school would be called on to play a big part after the war in any training scheme for the re-habilitation of service personnel.

Col. Lederman seconded the adoption of the Report and said that it was evident that the school would become of increased importance in the not too distant future. Enrolments were showing a big increase and he felt that the time had come for a move to secure additional accommodation and equipment for the part the school would be called on to play in the post-war period. People were becoming educationally minded and the State was very fortunate in having such a capable Minister for Education in Mr. L. J. Hollway.

The motion was carried unanimously.
