Woodclassing.
The President said that it was unfortunate that the Woodclassing instructor M. V. H.
Dorson was unable to spend more than one day per week at the school. The accommodation provided for these classes was very poor and a bad advertisement for the school. He would like members of the Council to inspect the rooms on the next meeting night as he felt that the instructor and students deserved better conditions for the important work they were doing. It was agreed to visit the Woodclassing building on the night of the
