

15-11-44 lectures when much of the work could be done at this school. At a previous conference, held some years ago, the University acted as an obstructionist. If it was ^{now} prepared to supply lecturers it would solve most of the difficulties.

Accounts Accounts amounting to £1565-13-7 as per Chairman's Book, folio 48, were passed for payment. (Mrs Farr & Scanland)

Correspondence The following correspondence was read and received -

21-10-44 From Ballarat Historical Society requesting the loan of a glass topped ~~to~~ display case.

24-10-44 From Bendigo School of Mines re salary of Instructor of Blacksmithing & Welding.

26-10-44 From the Education Department re repairs to floors in Assay and Chemistry Departments.

30-10-44 From the C.S.I.R. re fungus growth on walls of Chemistry Laboratory.

31-10-44 From Ballarat City Council renewing Scholarship Grant of £50 for 1945.

1-11-44 From the Gordon Institute of Technology re salary paid to instructor of Blacksmithing and Welding.

1-11-44 From the Education Department re renovations and alterations to Junior Technical School.

1-11-44 From the Education Department re Equipment Grant of £2650 for 1945.

15-11-44 6-11-44 From the Education Department re position of Senior Lecturer - Electrical Engineering.

8-11-44 From the National Gallery of Victoria offering six prints on loan.

10-11-44 From South Melbourne Technical School re salary paid to Instructor of Blacksmithing and Welding.

10-11-44 From the Education Department re staffing in the Art School. (Mrs Nicholson & M.B. John)

Business Loan of glass topped case.

out of It was resolved that the Ballarat Historical Society's request for the loan of a glass topped case be granted. (Mrs Nicholson & Farr) correspon- dence Loan of prints by National Gallery. It was resolved that the loan of six prints be accepted and ^{that} the National Gallery be thanked for same. (Mrs. Scanland & Jones)

Staffing of Art School.

It was resolved that the Department's letter be acknowledged with thanks. (Mrs Farr & Scanland)

Discoloured walls in Chemistry Laboratory

It was resolved that the C.S.I.R. be thanked for their suggestions as to overcoming the discoloration of the walls in the Chemistry Laboratory. (Mrs Lynch & Farr)