General Open Night.

Business The President referred to the proposed arrangements for the Open Night to be held on the 25th October and said that in view of the altered political situation the Finance Committee felt it advisable to omit the proposed luncheon and afternoon tea, and to confine the proceedings to the Open Night followed by a supper for the staff. It had also been decided to arrange for publicity through the Ballarat Courier and to invite the headmasters, their staffs and senior students of the secondary schools to visit the school on the Open Night.

It was resolved that the Finance Committee's proposals be endorsed and carried into effect.

(Mrs John and Jones)
It was also decided to send invitations to the Girls' Colleges, Girls' School, Youth Centre and Head Masters' Association.
(Mrs Wilson & John)
