

12-12-45

General Business.

Act Assistant, classification C3, re-advertised. The Registrar reported that as a result of re-advertising this position only one additional application had been received and Mr. Johnston was of the opinion that it did not affect the decision previously arrived at regarding Mr. B. Bryan.

It was resolved that the Education Department be notified that as no suitable applications had been received as a result of re-advertising the position the Council deemed to again recommend the appointment of Mr. B. Bryan.

(Mrs. Lederman & Maxwell)

Miss M. Gigg and Mr. J. H. Kengrove -
Minutes of Appreciation.

To Miss M. Gigg.
This Council records its deep appreciation of the sterling services rendered to the School by Miss M. Gigg. Miss Gigg was appointed Senior Teacher of Painting in 1930 and during an unbroken period of fifteen years she obtained most gratifying results. Her willingness to cooperate in the social activities of staff and students has contributed in no small measure to the happy relations which have been so evident.

While deploring the loss of her services this Council is confident that her record will prove an incentive to those who follow her and that her interest in the school will not cease with her retirement from active service. Given under the common seal of the School of Mines and Industries, Ballarat, this twelfth day of December 1945.

12-12-45

Signed E. J. Liffeth President
M. G. Scanland Vice President
J. H. Kengrove Registrar

To Mr. J. H. Kengrove.

This Council records its deep appreciation of the sterling services rendered to the School by Mr. Thomas H. Kengrove. Mr. Kengrove was Art Assistant during the period 1901 - 1908. After an absence of fourteen years he returned to the School in 1922 as Senior Instructor in modelling and ceramics and during the next twenty four years obtained most gratifying results. His willingness to cooperate in the social activities of staff and students has contributed in no small measure to the happy relations which have been so evident. While deploring the loss of his services this Council is confident that his record will prove an incentive to those who follow him and that his interest in the school will not cease with his retirement from active service.

Given under the common seal of the