Disposals Commission and Equipment

The Principal reported that he had contacted Mr Hoadley, Principal of Footscray Technical School, who was 17-4-46 Chairman of a special committee appointed by the Education Department for the purpose of acquiring equipment for Victorian Technical Schools. Mr Hoadley would endeavour to obtain any items which were available on being notified of the requirements of the various schools. He had already informed Mr Hoadley that this school desired to obtain anovels, D.C. motors, refrigerators and a searchlight unit.

Building Scheme.

The President reported that he had interviewed Mr. F. J. Holloway and had suggested that a small deputation wait on the Minister of Education regarding making an early start on the Master Plan submitted in 1944. Mr Holloway thought it would be better to invite the Minister to visit the school and he hoped to arrange such a visit during the month of May.

The President also reported that a number of cultural bodies in Ballarat were interested in obtaining a suitable block of land for a small theatre. Mr G. S. Richards had interested himself in the project and after inspecting several sites, had chosen the triangular block on the south side of the old Court House. This property had recently been sold for £250
