

19-6-46

were almost ready for occupation. The colour scheme was bright and very attractive. He also inspected the blacking shop and found here also a very nice colour scheme.

The machines were being painted and looked very fine.

He then visited the Carpentry class in the old Court House. Nothing much could be done here as the accommodation was only of a temporary nature.

During his visit he found little to criticise and much to praise. The yard near the new Engineering building was very muddy but it was questionable whether it was practical to attempt anything until the contractor had finished.

The report was received and adopted.
(Mrs Wilson & Jones)

Business

Bicycle Accommodation.

The Principal reported that an examination by Mr Nicholson and himself disclosed that the accommodation could be almost doubled by re-arranging the bicycles. He intended to engage the Carpentry trainees on this job and to proceed right away.

Dressmaking Department.

The Principal reported that the lighting had been improved and the table tops would be attended to.

Junior Technical Yard etc.

The Principal reported that the Public

19-6-46

Works Department had repaired the concrete square when they sealed the rest of the quadrangle. The fence between the gaol and the school was being repaired by the gaol staff. The Public Works Department had the matter of the Albert St. fence in hand and the wooden steps near the boiler room were to be replaced with brick steps.

A quote of £20 had been received for levelling and gravelling the grounds near the Harris court.

It was resolved that Mr. Farlick's tender of £20 for this work be accepted. (Mrs Sutton & Wilson)

Assistant Instructor Science & Mathematics.
The Registrar reported that no applications had been received in response to the advertisements in the daily newspapers.

It was resolved that the Education Department be requested to approve of a higher classification for this position. (Mrs John & Callow)

Carpenter and Cleaners

By the recommendation of the Principal it was decided to the Carpenter, Mr. P. Brew, responsible for the proper carrying out of duties by the Cleaners employed and that such appointment be made retrospective to the 1st July, 1945.
(Mrs Callow & Nicholson)