Red Cross Hut.

The Acting Principal reported that he had been informed that a large recreation hut at Victoria Park was to be disposed of by the Red Cross Society. It was believed that this hut was under offer to a Youth Club in Brighton that the Brighton City Council had refused permission for its re-erection on the site selected. If this hut could be obtained by the school it would provide excellent accommodation for Woodclassing and Motor Mechanics and would release the present Woodclassing building for moulding classes. The dismantling and re-erection of the hut would also provide splendid training for the Reconstruction trainees.

It was resolved that negotiations for the hut be left in the hands of the President, the Acting Principal and the Registrar.
