care-taking in connection with the Museum.
Mr. Moberg agreed that the best solution would be to obtain the services of a war pensioner, and he undertook to contact Mr. J. Corbett, Secretary of The War Museum Committee, and the Secretary of the R. S. & A. S. L. A. with a view regarding the matter.

Visiting Committee's Report.

C. S. Farr reported that he and C. W.
Stohr had inspected the new trade workshops and the fitting shop.
As most classes in the new buildings were in the course of changing over from their previous location there was a general air of disorganisation which was not surprising in face of the difficulties caused by an incomplete building and the non-delivery of many items of equipment.
The Committee felt that good work was being done and that when completed the new workshops would be a valuable adjunct to the school.
The fitting shop was in its usual state of good order and efficiency.
The report was received and adopted.
