

17-3-48. Resignation of Mrs D. McKay

It was resolved that Mrs D. McKay's resignation as part-time teacher of Dressmaking be accepted with regret.

(Mrs John & Nicholson)

Inspector in charge of Applied Chemistry. The Principal reported that the Department - al Committee which had considered the applications and the Council's recommendation of Mr M. K. Aston for the position had declined to recommend the appointment on the ground of Mr Aston's lack of practical experience.

In a telephone conversation the Chief Inspector had stated that the Director had favoured Mr Aston's appointment but as he was on vacation no further action could be taken until he returned.

It was decided to defer further action until after the Director's return.

General. Architecture Course.

The Principal reported on a recent visit to Melbourne Technical College by himself and Mr R. G. Pecker in connection with the two years recognition of the first two years of the course of Architecture by the R.V.S.A.

In the opinion of the architectural teaching staff at Melbourne Technical College the methods followed here were very poor and the College was not prepared to agree to Mr Coburn acting as a supervisor of studies.

Mr J. Miller was well thought of and had been contacted. He was at present considering the matter, and would give his decision in a few days.
