

12-5-48 and said that Mr. Hutchison had been unable to join him in the inspection owing to pressure of official business. He had inspected the junior school, gardens and grounds and the Dressmaking Department.

Miss Williams had showed him over the Dressmaking building where two classes were in operation. Everything was in good order and Miss Williams was very happy and satisfied with the conditions there.

The gardens and grounds at the junior school were in good order and looked very attractive in spite of ~~it~~ being ~~an~~ it between seasons.

He felt however, that the playing space available was inadequate but could not suggest any satisfactory remedy.

Mr. Jeffery showed him over the building where he noticed some painting work being undertaken by C.R.S. I. S. draughtsmen.

He also noticed that the top of the fence dividing the school from the road had come adrift and suggested that the matter be reported to the proper authority.

The report was received and adopted. (Mrs. Tarr & Jones)
