Visiting Committee

Mrs Bealand and Savage reported that they had paid a visit of inspection to the Engineering Department and Trade Workshops on the 27th May. In the Welding Department another transformer was required before students on a "waiting list" could be accommodated.

16-6-48

In the carpentry section one machine required repairs, and one or two new machines have yet to be installed. All workshops were in excellent order and the Instructors contacted were very pleased with their working conditions.

The report was received and adopted. (Mrs Stohr & Farr)

Business Donation to Library

Mr Farr expressed the Council's appreciation of the efforts of the President which culminated in the receipt of £100 donation to the library by the A. R. & J. M. Ronaldson Charitable Trust.

It was resolved that a letter of thanks and a copy of the conditions suggested by the Principal be forwarded to M. R. Ronaldson.
(Mrs Nicholson & Farr)
