

17-8-48 to ask him to visit Ballarat for interview.

Mr. Scarshad telephoned last Friday and had requested the bringing forward of his application of last year. He had also stated that he proposed visiting the school on the 16th August to discuss the matter but late that day a telegram had been received from him stating that he was laid up with influenza. No further communication had been received from him.

It was resolved that Mr. Barker be asked to visit Ballarat for interview on Saturday morning, the 21st August, at 11 am.

(Mrs Lederman & Bealand)

This concluded the business and the meeting closed.
