Malcolm
to Mr. R. Cutter

The President extended a warm welcome to Mr. R. Cutter regarding appointment as Head Master of the Junior Technical School, and said that he was confident that Mr. Cutter would carry out the duties of Head Master with credit to himself and honour to the school. He hoped that the Junior School would continue to progress and that it would become a bigger feeder to the Senior School.

Mr. Cutter in responding said that it was 28 years since he was here last as a member of the Staff. His aim would be to encourage as many students as possible to enter the Senior School. He thanked the Council very much for their welcome and requested leave to retire.

Museum.
The President reported that owing to the 28-2-49 Christmas vacation it had not been found possible to discuss with the Mayor the matter of the Museum. On the President's suggestion it was resolved that the matter be left in the hands of the Finance Committee.

Farming Subjects
The Principal said that in spite of extensive advertising he was continually finding that country people were being enthusiastic & over the Farm Mechanics course and special subjects available to them but stated that they did not know that such instruction was available at the school. The problem was to reach these people and inform them of the position.

Mr. Kibson said that it would be possible to contact about 2000 suppliers by means of dodgers in cream cans handled by the Wallace Millbrook & Bunimoy Butter Factory. The Principal expressed his warm thanks for the offer.
Messrs. W. J. Patterson.
It was resolved that a letter of sympathy and best wishes be forwarded to Mr. W. J. Patterson of the Junior Technical
