(Mrs Larr & Smail.)
Death of Mr R. C. Cutter, Headmaster of Junior Technical School.

The President reported the death of Mr R. Cutter, which had occurred in Melbourne earlier in the day. He said that during the short period that 10-5-50 Mr Cutter had been in charge of the Junior Technical School he had worked hard to build up the number of students and to encourage fourth year students to continue their education in the senior school. As a result of Mr Cutter's efforts a much greater number of students from the Junior School had commenced Diploma courses this year.

Members of the Council then stood in silence in memory of the late Headmaster.

It was decided to send a letter of sympathy to Mrs Cutter.

Business Accommodation at Junior Technical School.
out of The President read a copy of a letter minutes which had been forwarded by him to the Education Department. It was agreed that the letter conveyed an excellent ^{appreciation} of the case for increased accommodation at the Junior School.
