Presentation of letters under seal to Mr G. W. Cornell and Mr D. E. Clutkins

Before commencing business the Chairman presented letters of appreciation of long service to Mr. G. W. Cornell and Mr. D. E. Clutkins who were present by invitation. The Chairman referred to the long periods of service rendered by both instructors and the excellent results they had obtained. He concluded by wishing them many years of happiness and expressed the hope that their interest in the school would not cease with their retirement from active service. Both recipients suitably responded.
