Valediction

The President referred to Mr J. R. Lyall's approaching departure and expressed the Council's appreciation of his interest and help in connection with the school and its projects. On behalf of the Council he extended congratulations and best wishes to Mr and Mrs Lyall. Mr Lyall in responding said that he would miss very much his association with the school, the Council and the staff. He had learned a tremendous amount about the work of a technical school and had gained a new view-point. He thanked the President and members for their kindly references and best wishes and would convey them to his wife.
