

15-6-55 Sound Projector equipment at Junior Technical School.

It was resolved that the Junior Technical School Mothers' Club be thanked for the part played by them in providing a Bell & Howell sound Projector at the Junior Technical School.

(Mrs Lynch & John)

Authority for receipt books.

Authority was given for the printing of the following receipt books: -

24-3-55 Harry Brown & Co. 1000 Sales of Material.

31-5-55 " " 7200 Less.
(Mrs Webb & mail)

A Grade Welding Certificate.

In reply to a question as to whether the course in Welding conducted by the school was adequate for the A grade Welding Certificate, the Principal said that to the best of his knowledge it was. He agreed to obtain full particulars of the position regarding examinations for this certificate and to submit a report at the next meeting of the Council.

Accounts Accounts amounting to £453-12-8 as per Chairman's Book, folios 106/107 were passed for payment.

(Mrs Wyres & Dinaker)

Correspondence The following inward letters were read and received: -

16-5-55 National Museum of Victoria
Re: Fossils from Great Runnyong Estate here donated to school by Hon R.P. Vale.

23-5-55
1-6-55
15-6-55 Commonwealth Institute of Values.

Re: lectures in Surveying, Law, Building Construction and Rural Economics.

2-6-55 Education Department.

Re: Resident caretaker's cottage at Ballarat North Junior Technical School.

8-6-55 Shire of Bungaree.

Education Department subsidy of £300 for Hoymans Creek improvement applied for.

15-6-55 Miss B. D. Ngip.

Resigning from office of staff from and inclusive of 26 June.

(Mrs John & Lynch)

Business Fossils from Great Runnyong Estate change

out of ~~the~~ ^{decided} ~~the~~ ^{the} question of a loan or a donation of these fossils to the National Museum, be re-considered at the next meeting of the Council and that in the meantime a search of early records of the school be made for the purpose of ascertaining whether the Hon. R.P. Vale laid down any conditions when he donated the fossils to the school.

Lectures in subjects for examinations conducted by the Institute of Values.

It was decided that further consideration be given to this matter at the next meeting of the Council when the Principal will submit a report on the matter.

Resignation of Miss B. D. Ngip.

It was resolved that the resignation of Miss B. D. Ngip, Lytton, from and inclusive of 26 June be accepted with regret.
(Mrs John & Dinaker)