Boiler Attendants

Mr Lynch said that from information he had received and backed by his own experience there was a big demand in Ballarat and district for qualified Boiler Attendants. His remarks were supported by Crs Stohr and Aml.
Mr Cranland said that he had been informed by the Secretary of the F.E.D.F.A. that there were qualified attendants in Ballarat who were engaged in other occupations but who would accept employment as Boiler Attendants if suitable positions were available.
It was resolved that steps be taken to establish a list of prospective students with a view to commencing a series of lectures early in 1956 and that the Secretary of the F.E.D.F.A. be informed
