

29-2-56 word "student" but as the administration of the request is in the sole hands of the School Council he felt that a variation to meet present conditions would be permitted. Council recommended that the Public Trustee be approached in the matter. His officer would then approach the Solicitor General but no consent to the variation would be given in writing. However, the Solicitor General would make a notation for record purposes.

Shearing Course.

The Principal gave further information regarding the requirements in the matter of a suitable shed and machines, availability of sheep and the cost of an instructor.

It was decided to leave the matter in the Principal's hands for the time being while he makes further enquiries.

Plans of alterations to old Court House.

It was decided that these be submitted for consideration at a later date.

Reports The Principal's Report was read, received and adopted.

Received: Mrs Linaker & Small

Adopted: Mrs Wyles & Pearson.

Business arising out of reports.

Confirmation of appointments.
It was resolved that the action of the Finance Committee in recommending to the Education Department the appointment of Mr. R. Morgan as Assistant Instructor in Carpentry and Joinery be confirmed.
(Mrs Wyles & John)

29-2-56 It was also resolved that the appointments of Mr. C. W. Beason as cleaner at Ballarat North Junior Technical School and Mr. A. J. Morgan as cleaner at the Art School be confirmed.
(Mrs Beasland & Pearson)

Retirement of Mr. H. Brew.

It was resolved that a letter over the signature of the President be forwarded to Mr. H. Brew expressing appreciation of his services over the last 19 years and conveying best wishes for the future.
(Mrs John & Linaker)

Domestic Science Block at Girls' Junior Technical School.

It was resolved that a letter be forwarded to the Education Department stressing the urgent need of this department in connection with the syllabus requirements for junior technical girls' classes.
(Mrs Linaker & Beasland)

Re-organisation of War Museum

It was resolved that Major and Mrs Millett be thanked for the excellent job done by them in bringing the War Museum up-to-date.
(Mrs Beasland & Linaker)

Proposed visit by members to Ballarat North Junior Technical School.

It was decided that a visit by members to Ballarat North Junior Technical School on a Tuesday afternoon for the purpose of meeting the Executive Committee of the Mothers' Club and an inspection of the school.