Business
out of Consequeence. Gift of model Farm Smithy.
The Principal said that this offer had been forwarded to the President through Messrs Percival & Whitty Pty Ltd of Devonport Street, and the President had felt that no matter what the future of the Museum might be the offer was too important to refuse.

General
Business. Future of Museum building.
The Chairman reported that a conference between Mr Bottoms and Mr Francis (Public Works Department), Mr Peart, (Technical Schools Inspector) and Mr Eldridge (Technical Schools Inspector), the Principal, the Registrar and himself had been held during the previous afternoon, when the library and the Museum building had ~~been~~ were inspected.

Mr Bottoms and Mr Francis agreed that it would be useless to try and convert the present building into classrooms etc.

It was now a matter of awaiting the Education Department's re-action to the Council's request for the demolition of the building and the erection of a new building in its place.

15-8-56 Conversion of Inscribed Stock
It was resolved that £340 of Commonwealth inscribed stock maturing on 15th August be converted into inscribed stock in the new
