Today is the great day!... At 4.30 this afternoon, the Community Care Centre will be officially opened thus marking a notable event in the history of Marysville After much hard work by a dedicated committee we will all be able to benefit from the fruits of their labor. Make this afternoon's opening a "must" for your attendance and, after all the serious side of things is over, join the crowd at the Marysville Hotel Ball Room for a mighty night of good old country restivities and hospitality.

ANGLING CLUB DINNER

Tonight, at the "Crossways", the angling club is holding its annual presentation dinner.

It is unfortunate that the C.C.C. opening clashes with the dinner, which is an annual affair.

For devotees of the great art of rod and line a most enjoyable evening is assured if you polish up those tales of "the one that got away" and get along to "Crossways" for a 4. course dinner (probably including some that didn't get away), B.Y.O. at 7.00 p.m.

$6 single.

MRS BILL WALKER ILL

The pairs competition will be continued next Monday night starting at 7.00p.m.

All games held at the hotel. Entries for the singles competition should be handed in as soon as posse] ible so the draw can be finalised.

GOLF NEWS

The Presidents would once again like to thank all the the poople who made it such a success. ful day.

FOOTBALL NEWS

A very large and enthusiastic crowd saw both teams beaten on Saturday in two very mediocre games. The juniors, who realise that they will play in the first semi anyway, just seemed to coast along, while the seniors, after two desperate wins, failed miserably to win their game. A win would have notched a place in the four but we missed by one goal. It could be argued that a very .. contraversial goal at the end of the third term cost us the game but there were no excuses for a poor effort.A win on Saturday would have created. for the club as they would have been catering van is fast approaching. The new unit will be a great asset t the club in all its catering ventures and in any Emergency Search and Rescue, work which comes up. The van will have cost approximately $5000 by the time it hits the road. The money for purchase of the van is well spent as now a prompt efficent service can be provided in the event of emergency work.
