Second hand corrugated iron...Best Offer. N. FISKE, MARYLYN GUEST HOUSE

COMMUNITY CARE CENTRE

The Centre is now funtioning from its new location in Murchison Street.

Sister Marion Gray has returned from sick leave and is in residence. Welcome home Marion.

Sister Molly Kay, feeling rather exhausted after the big move, is now on sick leave for a month. Sister Jenny Brown of Eildon will be relieving in the meantime. No after hours calls on her days.

The Committee wishes to thank all who so willingly joined in making the opening celebrations so successful.

Particularly we would like to thank Mr and Mrs Jim Darmody and their staff for their cooperation. Thanks also to Len Sund, who returned from retirement to help out with his drumming ability in the band. Also to Brian Simmons.

As we had hoped, expenses were very low. Not casseroles came from M'ville and Buxton Hotels, Cumberland, Kooringa, Marylands, Marylyn, Silver Birch Motel and Robin Adolphs. Chickens were supplied at almost half price by Rex Goulding and cooked in all the best ovens in Marysville. The Golf Club ladies and Committee members' wives provided the savoury salads and ham.

Kindergarten Mothers Club and the Mothers Clubs of Marysville, Buxton and Narbethong schools supplied gallons(!) of fruit salad and other sweets and many other beautifully prepared dishes came from individual donors too numerous to mention.

Local business houses-Boyles, Castles, Cacambouras, McFarlanes and Richardsons -gave bread rolls, butter, savouries and novelties and of course Tino took care of all the milk and cream.

Anything we had to buy was more than covered by donations of money, quite unsolicited, from the Senior Citizens, Mr and Mrs F. Barton, Rev. George Edwards September 13 to see the film "Sunsh-, Cheryl Norman, R. Dean, L. Ackerman, Tower Motel, R. Blood, E. Kelly, Cr and Mrs Mills(Healesville).

The Centre profitted by $1025 from the Evening.

Special thanks go to the Gubs, Brownies and Guides and their leaders for their guard of honor; to the removalists and to the men who made a mud hole into a reception area(with the aid of Halliday's wood chips); to Marshall and Lorna Hull and Jim and Evelyn Greatorex and others who provided the instant garden and to so many others there isn't spawe to mention.

It was our big day-and night-and you all helped to make it.

Thank von!

Everyone was shocked to hear of the death of Drew, the son of Gail and Garry Greatorex, two weeks ago. Two years old Drew wi in Moe hospital after being rusned from Erica.

He had swallowed some poison laid to kill ants in his parents caravan.

Thanks to all the people who have conveyed their sympathies to the Greatorex families at ramery sad time.

THE PLIGHT OF A LONELY MAN

On Tuesday, while doing her mail run, Mrs Olga Vanni noticed that milk had not been taken in at Mr Dan's residence. When she investigated she found that Mr Joe Slonini-former Book Keeper at Cook's Mill was bedridden following a stroke.

Joe, although partially paralysed, still had full control of his senses.

He had suffered the stroke on Friday night and was unable to get out of ii room to obtain help.

Only Olga's feeling that something was wrong saved Joe from dying , not from his stroke but from dehydration.

Joe, who was care taking Mr Dan's house while he is overseas is now recuperating in the Alexandra Hospital.

This near tragedy occurred while the Lions Club was making inquiries about the purchase and installation of emergency lights in our lone elderly citizens' homes to help avoid this unnecessary suffering. It is hoped that by the end of this month we can report that a number of these units been installed.

SENIOR CITIZENS
