Dear Mrs Skinner,

Your letter remindedme of how important you were to us all as children. You filled much of our lives with lessons practice, pretty costumes and anticipation of the next concert. We sometimes think today's Marysville children have everything but they don't have you. I don't think any of us reached "the Stage" but you did instill in us an appreciation of movement and rhythm enough to last a lifetime. bos IM bos . A. 2. U. nienosaiw

In case I forgot to say it before thank you for so much enjoyment.

Could you please "bore us" again with the story of your life in Mundubbra. Perhaps you may have encouraged other past residents to write to the Triangle of their life and whereabouts. Troqque bas eddpuodd quoY.dasbioos

A FOOT (tapping) NOTE: IT's no wonder you enjoy the Triangle-it's typed to a bag pipe beat by Kevin Connolly, a Highland Dancing teacher who has danced before the Queen.
