ILHAN CHARITY CHALLENGE DAY

Marysville Golf Club came alive when 119 players arrived to play in the Ilhan Foundation Charity Challenge last Tuesday.

The BBQ breakfast was firing at 8.30a.m as the players, staff and volunteers arrived for what was to be a fantastic day.

"I don't think anyone who was at our golf day will ever forget the opportunity to meet Australia's top golf professionals who kindly gave up their time to come to Marysville - Geoff Ogilvy, Adam Scott and Stuart Appleby. It was incredibly generous of them all.

A big thank you to everyone who came to play at the event and the Marysville Community Golf and Bowls Club, especially the volunteers who helped out on the day." Patricia Ilhan, Founder of the Foundation

The food and drink flowed throughout the day as spectators enjoyed the delights of watching Shane Warne, Grant Hackett and Channel 9 celebrities tackle the beautiful Marysville course. Eight Marysville players made up two teams while one member had the pleasure of joining one of the Corporate Teams – a great thrill, as that team came second!

Buxton Ridge Winery provided wine tastings, alongside Rochford from the Yarra Valley, all meats and eggs were purchased from Alexandra Quality Meats and the Marysville Bakery provided all the bread. The clubhouse was transformed for the special lunch held after the game.

As one person said "The Greg Norman Day at Heritage was good – but this was more enjoyable – much more friendly"..... well it is Marysville!

As far as the eye can see....

Have you noticed the masses of wildflowers in the bush beside the road into Marysville?
Dr Lachlan snapped this fantastic display on Red Hill late last week. They are thought to be Xanthorrhoea macromena a member of the grass tree family.

$350,000 Reinstatement Works for Marysville Caravan Park Completed Ahead of Time Says Council

Immediately Marysville was re-opened after the black Saturday bushfires, Murrindindi Shire Council has worked feverishly to get the Park open again for the public.

The Park, which is on Crown Land with Council as the appointed Committee of Management, was extensively damaged on Black Saturday.

"Phase one of the reinstatement works costing over $350,000 has been completed ahead of schedule", said Rob Croxford, Acting Chief Executive of the Murrindindi Shire Council.

Nearly $160,000 was spent on the reinstatement of the amenity block and other works costing over $160,000 including electrical work, fencing and sewerage. Council would like to acknowledge the work of Bay Building Services, insurance company builders, for completing the reinstatement works at the Marysville Caravan Park and the many other council/community facilities. A grant from the Department of Sustainability and Environment (DSE) was used to bring many of the cabins on-line.

Says Rob, " we had a goal to get the caravan park reopened as soon as possible, and we were very pleased to see works finished ahead of time. This saw the park open its doors in August."

A further $500,000 has now been granted, thanks to the support of the DSE, by the Victorian Bushfire Reconstruction & Recovery Authority (VBRRA) which will allow a great deal more to be done. It will ensure the park offers visitors to the area the very best of facilities.

Ken and Christine Adams, the new operators of the Marysville Caravan Park have reported substantial support by visitors since reopening. "We are receiving solid bookings for the holiday season ahead and we've already had to put the no vacancy sign up for recent events like the Marysville Marathon", Christine commented. "Many of the contractors working on the rebuilding of Marysville have also been extremely supportive in staying with us. Their support is really appreciated".

"We are also extremely grateful to the many volunteers who assisted in re-establishing our gardens, some of whom travelled from as far away as South Australia to give a hand."

Another welcome inclusion at the park is what is promoted as "Marysville's smallest shop", which offers basic grocery items, snacks, drinks etc. as well
