Marysville's Sparkling Wine Festival a great success!

A record number of entries, 210, for any Sparkling Wine competition were received for this second Marysville Sparkling Wine Festival. The winners were announced and trophies presented at the Gala Dinner held at the Black Spur Inn on Cup Eve.

The overall winner was 2006 Brown Brothers Patricia Pinot Noir Chardonnay.

The diners were entertained by Bev Fraser and her fantastic band.

Donovan Wilson launched his second book "The Wild Heart of the Yarra Valley", filled with his beautiful photographs of our part of the country.

Best dressed couple were judged to be Jacqui and Ian Pearson shown top right with Festival President Christine Adams and MC Andrew Emling.

Best dressed "young aussie bloke" Daniel Christie, right, with mum Jill.

And there was fun for the kids too - big plastic 'balls' and water!

The rain held off and the sun came out for all to enjoy the festivities of Cup Day.

Below, the start of the 'fillies' race which was held just before the main race at Flemington.
