Wow! FORTY YEARS of LIONS

Marysville & District Lions Club celebrated 40 years of Community Service.

Members, Past members, including 2 Charter members, Visiting Lions, Non-Lion Active Supporters, Members of the Community, eighty people enjoyed a Great Night of celebration last Saturday, in the fantastic Narbethong Community Hall.

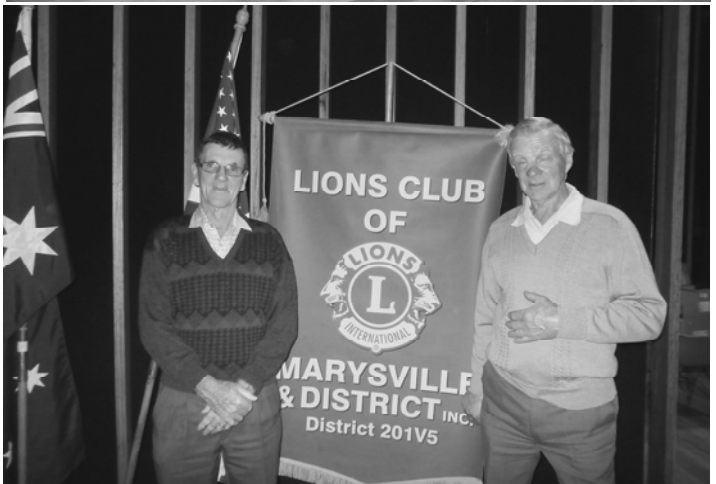

Gourmet food by Mike Jaeger of the Lazy River Café and his Team, Great music by The Scrimshaw Four to start the evening, and later Great music for dancing by Denis Tucker.

Support over the years for many local projects including the Community Health Centre, Ambulance, Fire Brigades, SES, Alexandra Hospital, Guides, Schools, Kinder, Youth Group, RSL, Community Events - Australia Day, Anzac Day, and of late, great concerts in the Community Centre.

Support for national & international projects, "Sightfirst", disasters in Q'ld., NSW, Tas., Vic and overseas.

Apart from delegated funds received post 2009 fires, Marysville & District Lions Club have over the past 12 years, donated over $500,000 to the Community. Some $40,000 per year, from fundraising - what a marvellous effort.

Congratulations to all past and present members and those volunteers from the Community who have helped achieve this fabulous result with thousands of volunteer hours over the forty years.

MARYSVILLE GOLF REPORT

The Marysville golf course is looking at its best with the autumn colours still on the trees. On Wednesday numbers were bumped up by friends of the Howards joining players for the day. Helen Howard (20) was the winner of the stableford round with 33 points & nearest the pin was won by Laurie Wright on the 4th.

The Thursday 9 holers played a stroke round on the back nine. Runner up for both was Bob Emblin with 39 points on a countback. Nearest to the 15th on the 3rd shot was Ron Jones & Roger Thomas won the putting with 11 putts.

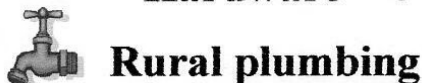

In glorious autumn weather on Saturday the men played stableford for the 2nd round of the Barton Cup. The winner was John Norfolk (26) with an excellent 45 point & runner up was Joe Tricarico (18) with 41 points. Ball run down was Adam Littlejohn (19) with 38 points & Yew-Leong Kuan (14) with 37 points. Nearest the pins were John Norfolk on the 4th, Steve Coker on the 9th & Geoff Ferguson on the 11th. There are now four qualifiers for the Barton Cup – Adam Littlejohn, John Norfolk, Yew-Leong Kuan & Joe Tricarico. The ladies played stroke for the 2nd round of the Silver Spoon & 1st round of the Club Championship. Gail Leigh (10) was the winner with 73 nett & runner up was Rebecca Lee (29) with 77. ## Spreading the message on energy efficiencies

From the little things like turning off the lights in an empty room, to the more aspiring goals of completely retrofitting buildings are highlighted in a documentary being supported by Murrindindi Shire Council.

The 8-10 minute video highlights Council's efforts in taking the initiative to audit many of its key buildings to look at better power and water use.

The production was supported by CarbonetiX who have been assisting Council in its energy audits.

Mayor John Walsh – who features in the production – said the video was about raising awareness and encouraging people to think about how they can become more energy efficient.

“As a Council we have a long way to go, but we are making small steps in reducing our carbon footprint,” Cr Walsh said.

“We want to share our journey with the community and say you can also play a part in reducing energy use and lower greenhouse emissions.”

Once edited, the video will be available on Council's website.

It will also be used to encourage other councils and government agencies to consider the important task of undertaking energy audits.

Mayor John Walsh talks up Council's audit program. He is joined by Council's Coordinator Environmental Programs Zoe Stephens, Salt Videographer Productions Jonathan Dawson and CarbonetiX Graham Davies.

Strong support for small business

Providing a pathway for small business to establish in the across the region is a key goal of Murrindindi Shire Council's Economic Development Department.

Economic Development portfolio holder Cr Christine Challen said a key strength of Murrindindi Shire was its vast array of business types and industry sectors.

"Our small to medium enterprises create the bulk of the employment and investment opportunities across the region. They also provide a diverse range of goods and services which are an important part of our tourism industry and farming and agribusiness sector," Cr Challen said.

Starting out can place a heavy burden on would be investors and operators, so Council has developed a small business kit that provides a range of vital information particularly around business start-up.

The small business kit also provides access to key networks and business associations across the Murrindindi Shire and also to important agencies and vital information at a state and federal government level.

The kit provides information on business naming, financial management and business planning through to record keeping needs.

Kinglake's Angela Poulter – of My Little Country Kitchen – said the kit had been a welcomed guide in establishing her home-based business.

"It provides some very good information when you are starting out," Angela said.

"It provides key contacts and the important steps in getting your business up and running."

Importantly for those starting out in a new business or businesses wishing to purchase and build/expand/invest in their commercial premises/land can talk directly with Council's Economic Development staff who will identify and explain the relevant Council processes.

The team can arrange and facilitate a meeting with key Council officers prior to lodgement of a planning or building permit application to make the process easier and more efficient. It is all part of our service in assisting our business community.

Those wishing to obtain an information kit or want more information can contact Council's Economic Development Department on 5772 0318.

Starting out: Kinglake West's Angela Poulter of My Little Country Kitchen (www.mylittlecountrykitchen.com) receives a new business kit from Council's Economic Development Department representative Lisa Wallace.

Mayor's Chair

Recent Councillor comments have frequently included reference to our four year Council Plan and annual Budget. The work continues as we weigh up obligations, commitments, demands and service levels against limited available funds.

One strategy is to gain more grant funding for Council and community projects. With that in mind we are considering how Council can assist community groups assess, apply for and acquit State and Commonwealth grants.

I am a strong believer in mutual obligation when it comes to grants. Grants are not a gift, nor a right, but should be seen as an investment in the community and the community should demonstrate they can provide a successful social dividend in return.

There have been grants for halls, the Yea Saleyards roof and art shows to name a few. While completing a hall, roof, or show is good, real success is demonstrated with dividends like increased community events in a hall; greater throughput in the yards with increased potential support for other community activities; or a more vibrant arts community contributing to the wellbeing of the shire.

If we can continue to show that a dollar invested in the Murrindindi Shire is a dollar well spent, we will continue to attract grant funding for our community projects. We must ensure right from the start that there is a known and clearly defined social dividend that the community group is determined to provide.

The social dividend from the inaugural Australian Steelbands Festival was obvious to all those who attended. Rita, Lisa and Tony together with all their assistants are to be congratulated on bringing a new unique event to the shire that I'm sure will be around for a long time. It might be the genesis of a Music Month in Murrindindi. Who knows?

Fire amnesty to end Fire Danger Period

The CFA Fire Danger Period will end across Murrindindi Shire on Monday 15 April and Council has put in place a fire amnesty to allow people to undertake necessary cleaning up of their properties.

The amnesty period will start on 19 April and continue through to 6 May. After that time people will need a permit to burn in residential areas.

Mayor John Walsh said while residents could carry out burning, it was important fires were no more than one metre diameter by one metre high and must be supervised with a means to extinguish if necessary.

"With a very dry summer the amnesty does give people the opportunity to burn off vegetation material such as tree limbs, cuttings and leaves," Cr Walsh said. "It is important people do follow our regulations regarding fire sizes as the area is still very dry."

No windrows are to be lit without a permit in residential areas.

Council is urging residents to inform neighbours if they are burning off.

"While we want people to keep their properties in a good condition, we encourage people to talk with their neighbours if they are planning to burn off to reduce to reduce any potential disputes relating to nuisance fires," Cr Walsh said.

"Nuisance fires can be caused by too much smoke or the illegal burning of materials such as tyres. If these fires are reported our Local laws officers will attend and penalty notices can be issued."

For those people who do not want to burn, Council is providing free green waste disposal at all Resource Recovery Centres from 19 April through to 6 May (conditions apply see table below).

People wanting to use the free service will need to prove eligibility by presenting a copy of their current rates notice (or other appropriate verification of the property you own or reside at) to the site attendants.

"2013 Veteran's Football Competition Kicks off this Sunday"

Football in Marysville kicks off for season 2013 this Sunday starting with a home game at Gallipoli Park against Wandin with the bounce of the ball at 2.30pm.

Veteran's coach Dean Connell is confident of his team's chances of greater success this year and was buoyed by a resounding practise match victory last week.

It's important to give the team plenty of support so make a point of getting along to cheer on the Villains this Sunday as the Green and Gold take to the field in search of premiership glory.
