Turning up the heat for volunteer ski patrollers

WITH the snow season just around the corner, Lake Mountain Ski Patrol (LMSP) is recruiting additional volunteers to help look after the thousands of weekend day trippers who head to the resort each winter for some fun in the snow.

To be well prepared for the season, the patrol's 2015 training weekend will be held at Lake Mountain on the weekend of June 13 and 14 and prospective volunteers are invited to attend.

Patrol captain, Tim Hatten, an avid skier and outdoor enthusiast from Healesville, said patrollers need to be 18 years and older, have a good level of fitness and be competent skiers. They are also required to have a minimum Level 2 first aid qualification, added Tim who is manager of the Millgrove Outdoor Education Centre.

Ski patrol is an integral part of the resort operations keeping the mountain safe for visitors, providing first aid services and general advice to the public and assisting with searches if the need arises. Paid patrollers look after the resort from Monday to Friday and volunteers cover the busy weekend period.

The importance of LMSP is highlighted by the fact that Lake Mountain is the closest alpine resort to Melbourne, attracting more than 100,000 visitors each year.

"Ski patrol volunteers do an incredible job looking after our visitors and keeping the mountain safe," said Scott Gamble, the resort manager for Belgravia Leisure which took on the management of the resort in 2013.

"The patrol is an exceptionally important part of our operations and, if we are doing our job well in attracting visitors to the resort, then there is a great flow-on of benefits to the local Marysville triangle region," Scott said.

LMSP comprises a group of dedicated volunteers who come from all walks of life and share a passion for the snow and the outdoors. The patrol is based in a modern first aid facility at the resort with a range of state-of-the-art equipment.

Wearing their highly visible red ski patrol jackets and first aid packs, a typical day on the mountain sees patrollers rotate between the base, the extensive network of ski and snow shoe trails, toboggan slopes and other resort facilities.

"Ski patrolling is a great way to volunteer because, not only are you helping out, but you get to ski in a beautiful environment and work as a team, and have fun, with like-minded people," said Bronwyn Howell, a teacher from Alexandra who joined LMSP in the mid 1990s.. Continued on Page 3

Jesse Siebler, who grew up in Taggerty but is now based Melbourne, returns regularly as a ski patroller.

"I joined the patrol because I love skiing, and the challenge of being a 'first-responder'," enthused Jesse who works for Melbourne Water and recently attained certification from the Australian Ski Patrol Association (ASPA).

"The patrol is made up of a great bunch of very experienced people ... I am really looking forward to this season ... ASPA was the best training course I've ever done and I'm keen to put it into practice."

For Metropolitan Fire Brigade senior station officer and fire fighter Mac Hanson, 2015 will be her ninth season at Lake Mountain. Unlike other resorts, Lake Mountain is close enough for her to patrol for a single day as she is unable to commit to full weekends because of her demanding work roster.

"Ski patrol gets me out of the city and exercising in the fresh air of the hills," said Mac. "And, there is such a great mix of people on patrol."

MFB does 'Emergency Medical Response' with Ambulance Victoria, but, as Mac explained, it is only to patients who are unconscious/not breathing ... "It is nice to have live patients for a change!"

"Being part of the patrol is an ongoing challenge as you can always learn more about skiing and first aid and do things better."

The perks of being part of ski patrol include free entry to Lake Mountain and on-mountain accommodation on rostered weekends.

For those interested in becoming a volunteer patroller, please contact Catherine Sutton, LMSP Secretary on 0403 146 378/ ccrsutton@gmail.com

A small but enthusiastic group braved the frosty morning for a tour of the possible sites for the Marysville and Triangle bushfire memorial on Saturday 23 May. Three possible sites within Gallipoli Park are being considered:

In the Lions Park, next to the river, near the water wheel

The north western end of Lions Park, near the number 2 bridge and the entrance to Tree Fern Gully Trail

The area behind the Patisserie and next to the swimming pool.

The final site for the Memorial will be decided by a community vote. Voting closes on June 15th. More information and the survey can be found on the memorials web site

If you don't have a computer you can do it on the mobile library on a Tuesday afternoon, at the visitor information centre or if you wish you can ring Jenny Branton on the number below and she will register your vote.

The tender process for the design of the memorials will commence in early June. More information about the sites and the design process is available by contacting Jenny Branton on 0417 532 344.

What will be covered?:

Lisa Gibbs from Beyond Bushfires (www.beyondbushfires.org.au), The University of Melbourne is coming together with Rob Gordon, Psychologist for a forum on Social Impacts of Disasters.

Both will reflect on longer term impacts from the Victorian 2009 bushfires. The Beyond Bushfires research has been completed in partnership with a number of universities, service providers, and government and community partners looking at the medium to longer term impacts within selected communities.

This has explored mental health, wellbeing and social relationships.

This evening is being hosted by the Yarra Ranges Council with support from the Yarra Ranges Bushfire Recovery Network and will be an opportunity to get together to discuss the research findings and the local implications.

Rob Gordon will respond to the findings and provide context in helping us understand how to use this information, using his insights from years of working with communities after disasters.

Councillor Comment by Cr Cris Ruhr

It was with great regret and some sadness, that I handed my resignation to the Mayor and CEO at the last Ordinary meeting of Council on Wednesday 27 May 2015.

This decision was not easy, reached lightly or quickly. With the increased work-related travel and responsibilities I am no longer capable of attending the myriad roles of a Councillor.

The last five and a half years have been an exciting time; albeit exhausting, instructive and heuristic. Whilst I have not achieved every single thing I set out to do when I became a Councillor, I am pleased to have been part of a group of outstanding individuals.

This and the previous Council, have worked hard to ensure that the rate increase was kept low (as promised), advocated to State Government, committed to a full Council review, maintained focus on an achievable Council Plan, employed an outstanding CEO (who shares our vision), updated our website, and almost but not quite moved into the 21st century with social media.

Whilst I have only listed a few of the numerous items I have had the privilege to be involved with, and using some mixed metaphors, I know there is still a long road ahead, and at times the light at the end of the tunnel never seems to get any closer.

I believe the work that Council does is important, valuable work. It is done with altruism, energy, intelligence, reasoning and the very best of intention for the benefit of everyone in the community.

I would like to acknowledge the Mayor, Cr Margaret Rae, for her ongoing support, Cr John Walsh for his guidance over the last two Council terms and CEO Margaret Abbey for her patience and tolerance. I would also like to thank all of the Councillors and Council Officers, as I believe that we truly are a team. And more importantly, I would like to thank the people of the King Parrot Ward for having faith in me over the last five and a half years.

I wish the Councillors ongoing success in the future. I trust that Murrindindi Shire Council will remain transparent, honest and diligently continue to do the very best by the people of this Shire.

It has been a great pleasure.

Marysville Golf Report

Seasonal Challenges for the Marysville Golfers!

To non-golfers it may seem strange that every week many people spend time trying to hit a small white ball into a number of small holes. One of the pleasures of playing golf is that every golf course is subject to seasonal changes all of which create new challenges for the golfers. This week those challenges at Marysville included frost on the greens and fairways, strong chilly winds, toadstools, wombat diggings, deer hoof marks, a wallaby on the 12th fairway and even a black snake lying quietly on a log!

One member who obviously managed all these challenges was Roger Thomas who won both the Thursday nine hole competition and the Saturday monthly medal. On Thursday after spending four hours assisting with mowing the fairways Roger played Par on the front nine and won with +1 on a count back from Brodie Arnott. Green keeper Kellan Fiske won the nearest the pin with his tee shot on the 4th hole.

On Saturday Roger (23) won the men's June monthly medal with 41 stableford points followed by Yewls Kuan (13) with 29 points. The ladies winner was Gail Leigh (9) with 30 points and Sabrina Stow (22) was the runner up just one point behind. The nearest the pins were won by Yewls Kuan (2) Joe Tricarico and Ray Jones who also won the golden shot.

On Thursday 11th June a number of ladies will travel to Avenel to play in their annual Bowl.

Next Saturday the men will play the second round of the individual match play competition. The men who are not in the second round will play a stroke round as will the ladies.

Our thanks to members of the committee and the volunteers who are assisting with the upkeep of the course and gardens and the operations of the clubhouse.

For information about the club please ring 59633241.

Mayor's Chair Cr Margaret Rae

Last week I attended two meetings which are held quarterly in our region with our fellow small rural and regional councils - a group of some twelve councils, represented by their respective Mayors and CEOs. As ever, this proved to be informative and time well spent.

The first meeting was with the Municipal Association of Victoria (MAV) which is the peak body for local government and advocates to all levels of government on issues that affect our communities.

Issues of concern at the moment include the Essential Services Commission (ESC) consultations on how the rate capping system might work, the freezing of indexation of the Federal Assistance Grants, the future of Natural Disaster Funding, Black Spot funding and the Future of Federation issues papers. With the change of government at State level there are many matters still under consideration, such as the future of roads and bridges funding, that of the Flying Squad which assists councils greatly in the preparation of structure plans and planning scheme amendments, Home and Community Care (HACC) funding and support for kindergartens, not to mention the lack of growth in statutory fee revenue, continued cost shifting to local government and many other things.

Such matters affect small rural councils in particular as we have very limited ability to raise revenue by other means - putting up car parking fees to cover additional costs is simply not an option. By coming together and sharing our challenges and concerns, small rural councils can create a voice to be heard.

The second meeting was the Hume Region Local Government Network. As well as the more regular matters, the agenda included two presentations. The first was by an organisation called Albury Wodonga Foodshare - one of a group of such organisations in our region - which gave us somewhat startling statistics on the numbers of families and children in our region who often do not have enough food. They act as a food rescue program, subsequently redistributing this rescued food through various providers to families in need. It is a not for profit organisation run predominantly by volunteers. They also aim to help people move from poverty to education, training and employment. It is terrific to see so much hard work and goodwill and to see so much food rescued from landfill; however, it is equally clear that by its nature it is a very expensive process and heavily reliant on donations, volunteering and philanthropy.

The second presentation was very different and addressed the issue of strategic bushfire management. Presented by the Department of Environment, Land, Water and Planning (DELWP), the conventional approach of bushfire management through controlled burning - ie area based target burning - was discussed, followed by a description of a different approach under consideration - that of a risk based approach based on knowing and understanding the landscape better and an assessment of the degree of risk with and without fuel reduction burning. This approach is also recommended by the Inspector General for Emergency Management in a report just released called 'Review of performance targets for bushfire fuel management on public land', which can be found on his website. Separate bushfire management plans for specific areas have also been developed by DEPI (now DELWP) and these are also available on their website.

For Council these presentations and interactions help to keep us up to date, to understand the strategies employed by other agencies and consequently to have strong and productive working relationships. This is just a snapshot of a few of the many and diverse issues that we need to consider on a daily basis. Local Government may be demanding but it is never boring!

Council resolves to protect Leadbeater's possum

Federal Environment Minister, the Hon Greg Hunt has recently classified the Leadbeater's possum as 'critically endangered'. The classification, recognised as the highest level of protection under federal legislation, was made after a review of a report by the Threatened Species Scientific Committee (TSSC) and submissions from other experts, interested organisations and the wider community.

At its ordinary meeting on 27 May 2015, Murrindindi Shire Council resolved to commend the Federal Minister on his actions and request he consider measures to compel the Victorian State Government to cease logging in the Central Highlands Region within Murrindindi Shire Council. The Council also resolved to write to the Victorian State Minister for Environment, the Hon Lisa Neville reiterating its stance on protecting the possum's habitat.

Murrindindi Shire Council Mayor Margaret Rae said that while Council supports sustainable forest management practices, it opposes logging in State Forests within Murrindindi Shire which adversely impact on threatened species or ecological communities.

"Council will put in writing a request for logging to cease in areas considered to be Leadbeater Possum habitat in the Central Highlands region within our Shire as well as seeking increased protection and management for the Leadbeater's Possum.

"The possum which is Victoria's faunal emblem, has experienced an 80% reduction in population since the 1980s. A report by the Threatened Species Scientific Committee has identified the 2009 bushfires and timber harvesting operations as the major impacts on the possum's habitat loss.

"We need to do what we can with the influences we have to see this precious species protected and able to live on for future generations", said Cr Rae.

The Leadbeater's possum is a nocturnal animal which nests in hollows formed in old trees. Suitable hollows can take 190 years to form. The small possum also relies on the abundance of understorey plants such as acacias for foraging.

Council Plan report shows positive progress

The third quarter report on the Murrindindi Shire Council Plan 2013-2017 shows good progress in the achievement of Council's goals and objectives.

The Council Plan is a key document which sets out what Council expects to achieve over its four year term, and guides the allocation of resources to meet the Council's objectives.

Mayor Margaret Rae said the progress on actions for the 2014/15 financial year was pleasing with a majority of actions well on the way to being completed by year's end.

"Of the sixty-six actions underway this financial year, eight have been completed and most of the remaining actions are advancing well", said Cr Rae.

Highlights of the Plan's progress during the period January to March this year include:

- the launch of a dedicated Children's Network Facebook page;
- planning undertaken to address major issues facing vulnerable communities across the Shire;
- the recycling of 70% of all waste entering the Resource Recovery Centres;
- a Memorandum of Understanding established with Telstra with the objective of achieving improvements in mobile phone coverage across the Shire;
- support provided by Council for a total of nine (9) successful Cleanup Australia Day activities;
- the adoption of Council's new Rating Strategy; and
- success by Council in preparing a winning bid to host the Rural Councils Victoria Summit in 2016 in the Murrindindi Shire.

"As an organisation we remain committed to delivering for our communities. We do this by placing a strong emphasis on meeting the requirements set by the Council Plan", said Cr Rae.

The quarterly report is available on Council's website at www.murrindindi.vic.gov.au

This year, the Melbourne International Comedy Festival Roadshow visits Marysville on Saturday June 13th, so time is running out to reserve your seats! Also, just announced, Ben Mitchell and The Stylists, one of the attractions at the October Jazz and Blues Festival, will perform during Dinner at The Comedy Festival!

The hilarious Justin Hamilton will MC the night, the former host of Triple M's weekend breakfast show with Charlie Pickering, Justin is a long time star of The Comedy Festival and has won awards for 'best comedy show' in Melbourne and Adelaide!

"An unforgettable performance.....his jokes are intelligent, witty and entertaining! A show not to be missed! " – Adelaide Advertiser.

Along with Justin is London comedian Lloyd Langford, "A lugubrious Welshman, with a knack for churning out juicy one-liners," – The Guardian. An international comedy star, right here in Marysville!

And it doesn't end there! Anne Edmonds, the stand up comedienne and banjo player, was invited to appear at the 2013 New York Comedy Festival. David Quirk, "Blunt, brazen and brilliant...", The Age., and last but not least, Tom Ballard, "consistently and acutely hilarious" – The Herald Sun, "a comedian rightly being touted as one of Australia's brilliant new talents," – Chortle (UK).
