Provenance: Shire of Eltham

Date Range: 1992, 1994

Shelf Qty: 0.02sm

Content Description:

Series consists of one folder of photographs relating to Art in Public Places awards. The folder is divided into two parts:

1) Presentation and Installation - 1992 Award. Colour prints featuring Shire President Pamela Sladden opening "The Tower" at Weir St Park, Montmorency. Also pictured are Shire Arts officers Caroline Shaw and Chris Marks.

Folder includes:

- * B& W and colour photographs taken on the night of the award presentation.
- * Four colour photographs of Weir St Park prior to installation of tower.
- * Colour photographs of two alternative sites for installation of tower.

2) Selection of 18 colour photographs taken at Selection Night for the 1994 Art in Public Places award. This event took place in the new Eltham Library. Also included are panels of 32 photographs (colour and B&W) of Alistair Knox Park and the immediate area around the new Eltham Library – photocopies of these pictures were provided to artists to give them a feel for the area.

Note that selection took place after the commencement of the Nillumbik Shire Council, possibly in 1995.

Physical Characteristics/Condition:

colour prints 150mm x 100mm, mounted on art paper and stored in manila folder.
