Dear Mr. Riley,

re: Eaglehawk East Methodist Church, High Street

I have pleasure in writing to inform you that the above building has been Recorded by the National Trust. A citation is being prepared and will be forwarded shortly.

The Trust believes that for architectural and historical reasons it is essential to Australia's heritage and whose preservation is encouraged.

The National Trust would greatly appreciate being informed of any proposed alterations or developments which may affect the exterior of this property and, in particular, would welcome an opportunity to comment on any plans prepared for alterations, additions etc.

The Trust naturally hopes that whilst this important building is in your custody you will endeavour to ensure its preservation as sympathetically as possible.

Yours sincerely,

c.c. Dr. J.D. Trembath, Box 53 Eaglehawk P.O.

Dear Mr. Riley,

re: No. 4158 - Former Primitive Methodist Church, Eaglehawk

Following the Recording of the above church by the National Trust I write to inform you that the citation describes it as:-

"Erected in 1863, during the gold period, as a Primitive Methodist Church, with a classic style of facade."

Yours sincerely,
