

Synopsis

Hooray ! Today Frederic is free to leave the pirate band and return to civilisation.

It was his duty to serve the Pirate King but now he will fight for their extermination. Fred leaves in search of true love and finds Mabel. But alas! The pirates arrive and plan to marry all the maidens - until the Major General tells them he will be an orphan!

Interval

Frederic is faced with a paradox. He was born in a leap year, so instead of serving the Pirate King until he was 21 - he is really only 5 !!.

Oh No! It is his duty to return to the pirates.

Meanwhile the Major General and the Sergeant of Police are planning an ambush. Eventually the pirates must yield in the Queen's name- It is their duty.

But a happy ending, Ruth reveals a secret and they are pirates no more.
