(R. Vaughan Williams).

CHORAL SOCIETY.

"COME AWAY DEATH."

Come away, come away, death,
And in sad cypress let me be laid :
Fly away, fly away, breath ;
I am slain by a fair, cruel maid.
My shroud of white, stuck all with yew,
O prepare it !
My part of death no one so true
Did share it.

Not a flower, not a flower sweet,
On my black coffin let there be strown.
Not a friend, not a friend greet
My poor corse, wher my bones shall be thrown ;
A thousand, thousand sighs to save,
Lay me, O, where
Sad true lover never find my grave,
To weep there !

—Shakespeare.

6. SONG— "TO THE FOREST" (Tschaikowsky).

MISS VICTORIA M. ANDERSON.

7. FOLK SONG— "THERE WAS A TREE" (G. T. Holst).

CHORAL SOCIETY.

Hampshire Folk Song—Collected by G. B. Gardiner.

There was a tree all in the woods,
As fine a tree as ever you did see,
For the tree was in the woods,
And the woods lie down in the valley below.

There was a limb all on the tree,
As fine a limb as ever you did see,
For the limb was on the tree and the tree was in the woods,
And the woods lie down in the valley below.

There was a bough all on the limb,
As fine a bough as ever you did see,
For the bough was on the limb,
And the limb was on the tree,
And the tree was in the woods,
And the woods lie down in the valley below.

There was a bird all on the tree,
The finest bird that ever you did see,
For the bird was on the bough,
And the bough was on the limb,
And the limb was on the tree,
And the tree was in the woods,
And the woods lie down in the valley below.
